

Research for the Government Digital Service, part of the Cabinet Office

CONSENT FORM

The Government Digital Service is conducting research about how people access services from central and local government. As part of the research we are talking to lots of people from around the country to understand their views and ultimately to make online government services better for the public.

Any personal information that you provide during this discussion will be held in the strictest of confidence and your details will not be passed on to a third party. Participation in this research is entirely voluntary.

Please print your name and circle the option that is appropriate to your decision:

| | |
|---|---------------|
| I (name) _____ consent to take part in depth interview conducted by the Government Digital Service | YES/NO |
| I consent to audio and/or video recordings of the discussion for research and analysis purposes. I understand that this recording will be shared with any party that the Government Digital Service deems appropriate. This may include, but is not limited to, GDS, other Government departments, their stakeholders and other appropriate audiences in order to convey how citizens think and feel and to hear people's views directly | YES/NO |
| I am happy for the full video recording of my session to be added to an online research library. The library contains all of the footage and research that has been collected on this subject matter over the years and is used by GDS and partners as a reference tool | YES/NO |
| I agree not to discuss the information and ideas that are revealed in today's discussion with anyone outside of the discussion. I agree not to take any copies of materials away with me at the end of the discussion | YES/NO |

Signed _____

Date _____

(To be signed by participant)

Signed _____

Date _____

(To be signed by person collecting consent)

Printed name of person collecting consent: _____